

Forthcoming HLHS Meetings:

Please note that for evening meetings doors are open at 7pm to enable a prompt 7.30 start to proceedings.

Thursday 10th December 2pm Open meeting; How We Amused Ourselves Before TV

Did you belong to any clubs, go to the cinema or play any sports? If you have anything of interest to show us, please bring it along.*

Thursday 4th February 2pm Terry Pankhurst will speak and demonstrate Mechanical Music

Please note that the February meeting is a week earlier than usual.*

Monday 8th March 7pm Terry Cox - The Bravest Man You've Never Heard Of

Thursday 8th April 2pm The museum service will be coming to talk to us

Monday 10th May 7pm AGM followed by Kate Thompson and 'Housing the deserving poor'

Christmas Gift Idea!

Why not enrol a friend, neighbour or relation as a member of the Society - at £6 it's a bargain! Cheques made payable to: Hatfield Local History Society

Please keep your recollections comingwe all have a story to tell.

Feel free to write about any Hatfield related subject. Perhaps there is something you want to know?

You can write to us: Editors, HLHS Newsletter, c/o Mill Green Museum, Hatfield, Herts, AL9 5PD or email:

Suggested topics:

Music, dance, bands, singers, venues, halls, clubs and pubs in Hatfield 1935 to 1985

The workplace: jobs, conditions, people, pay, tales from the 'shop floor', agriculture, forestry

Buildings now demolished or ruins

Football teams: senior or Sunday sides, Mowlems, Hatfield Town at Stonecross Road or Angerland

Dealings with famous local people